Daily Surrender

Dear {{ contact.FIRSTNAME }},

“Then he said to them all: ‘Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me.’” — Luke 9:23

We often wish that surrender was a one-and-done event. We want to sign a contract with God at an altar on a Sunday and be permanently cured of our selfishness by Monday morning. But Jesus is incredibly clear: following Him is a daily subscription.

Every single morning, our ego wakes up fully recharged, ready to take back control of our lives. Every single day, we have to make the conscious decision to deny our impulsive desires, pick up our cross, and follow His lead instead of our own.

This daily surrender is not a punishment; it is the absolute bedrock of a life of freedom. When we deny the part of us that wants to control, manipulate, and dominate, we make room for the Spirit to guide us into sanity. You don't have to surrender your whole future today—you only have to surrender this day.

When you wake up tomorrow morning, before your feet hit the floor, say out loud: "I resign as the manager of my life. Today, I choose Your way over mine."

Lord, I choose Your way over mine today. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Remember, seeking help is a sign of strength, not weakness. You deserve a life free from addiction.
